THE LATE A. J. HOOKER.—The remains of Mr. Andrew J. Hooker, whose death at the residence of Mr. George Appich last Saturday afternoon was mentioned in the GAZETTE, were yesterday evening sent to the home of his mother in Reading, Pa., for interment. Mr. Hooker was for some years past an employee of the Midland road in this city and by his many excellent traits of character made many friends here. He was a member of Jackson Lodge of Masons, Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows and of the Musical Association. His remains were yesterday evening escorted to the depot by the two lodges above named and by a delegation from the Musical Association, and just before the starting of the train the Masonic burial service was read. Messrs. Frank Warfield and John Fisher, of Jackson Lodge, accompanied the remains to Reading, where to day they were interred with Masonic ceremonies.

MR. BASIL B. GORDON.—We are glad to be able to announce that Mr. Gordon, who for the last four or five years has been a very active member of the democratic State committee, and a member of the Virginia Legislature during the last session from the county of Rappahannock, and who, it is generally thought, will be made chairman of the democratic State committee at the State convention meeting in Richmond in August, has almost entirely recovered from his recent sickness and will be about in the next week thoroughly prepared for taking part in the State canvass. Mr. Gordon is also a candidate for the democratic nomination for State Senator from the Rappahannock, Culpeper, Orange and Madison Senatorial district.

THE MANY friends of Miss Nellie Pickett, of Fauquier county, will sympathize with her in the recent loss of her pocket book containing some thirty odd dollars and a large plain gold ring given her by her father. In leaving the Midland Manassas train last Thursday morning she failed to take from the seat her traveling satchel containing several letters addressed to her, and her pocket-book. Of course the articles were soon missed, and her brother, Mr. Geo. K. Pickett, of Fairfax, came at once to the city and went to Washington, but could obtain no information at all of the lost articles. The ring, containing the word "Mzphah," was especially valued on account of its associations with a parent now dead.

HOW IS THIS?—A prominent and well posted Mahoneite of this city said this morning that there were not over three federal office holders in this city who had not written to Gen. Mahone to get him to use his influence to have them retained in office, and that several other persons who had heretofore been considered as democrats had written to him requesting him to secure their places.

He claimed that the highest test of Christian virtue and of real manhood was the disposition and ability to stand still and hold a perilous position or do a disagreeable duty. He referred to General Jackson, who had immortalized himself by "standing like a stone wall," while others around were charging or fleeing.—Washington Press.

COLLISION.—As the steamer Mary Washington was leaving her wharf in Washington this morning the wind carried her stern to the right, coming in collision with the steamer Arrowsmith stove in the latter's stern for a distance of several feet. A New York morning paper prints a sensational story alleging that the notorious Madame Restelle, who was arrested at her palatial home, Fifth avenue and Fifty second street, New York city, April 8, 1878, on a charge of malpractice, and who was supposed to have committed suicide by cutting her throat in her bathroom, is now living in the suburbs of Paris, the body upon which the coroner's jury found its verdict having been one of the woman's victims.

Boulanger is successful in only nine. The republicans gain three seats from conservatives.

It is announced that Bishop Keane has succeeded in selecting the required number of divinity students—fifty-five—for the opening of the new Catholic University at Washington. They are all insured orders, but at least all are not priests. The famous Abbe Hogan, of the Boston Seminary, with two Sulpician assistants, will have charge of the discipline of the University, but will decline any share of the teaching.

Brown's Iron Bitters is a specific in all cases of swamp fever, intermittent fever, and malaria of any name. Low marshy ground, stagnant pools of water, decaying vegetable matter, changes of climate while suffering from general debility, all produce malaria. Brown's Iron Bitters cures all forms. Don't use quinine. It creates constipation, produces headache, and infrequently rheumatism and neuralgia. Brown's Iron Bitters never does. It will cure them.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that, too, by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her, and for seven years she withstood its severest tests; but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night, and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N.C.

News has been received here of the death near Hamilton, Bermuda, of Mrs. Katharine B. Masters, wife of Mr. Samuel A. Masters, formerly of this city. Last night about 10 o'clock while the family of Rev. Mr. Nourse were sitting on their front steps they were startled by the fall of an object near one of the trees. After a short search a carrier pigeon was discovered, having on one leg a metal ring with "E 155" on it—on the other leg a vulcanite ring with "Ky" on it. This morning Mr. Nourse wrote upon oil paper, "Fell at Alexandria, Va., 10 p. m., 29th inst. Report to Rev. J. M. Nourse," attached the note to one of the rings and released the pigeon. Another stray carrier pigeon was seen in that neighborhood this morning.
